
Overlapping training sets are not independent replications; frequencies did not define a global Outer subset.